Dear Parent/Guardian

We've squeezed fun into this week like Superman's muscles into his lycra. There won't be one moment to stand around doing nothing. Faster than you can say, "Hang on, where's my ray gun?" everyone will be whisked along into another Rescue. There'll be something for everyone. Whatever the preferred super power, there'll be a task. The fortunate children will have the chance to join us at the super hero's academy. Bill and Ted will be back as we work out with them, who the real super hero is. Can you guess? Forget Spiderman. Forget the Fantastic Four. It's Jesus we're here to discover.

From Tuesday 27th until Friday 30th May 2008, Dundonald Church will be running the Heroes Holiday club. It is for children aged between 5 and 11 and will be held every day from 10am – 12.30pm. It's £10 for the week; this is to cover refreshments and materials. (£3 a day for those who can't come every day). The Holiday Club takes place at our new Church building, "The Factory", at the above address.

As with every year, this half term's club will be a frantic mix of Bible stories, games, crafts, drama, quizzes and challenges. Our journey will take us into the fantasy world of super heroes and beyond! The only, real super hero (without weakness) will be discovered as we find out about Jesus. And just because we're in the world of comic book heroes doesn't mean there won't be something for the adults on Sunday 1st June. The final instalment of Holiday club will take place during our normal Sunday service followed by coffee and cakes for parents and children.

If you would like your child to join the club, please fill in the form below. Early booking will avoid disappointment! We can't wait to see your child for a week of Hero fun!
